WASHINGTON, Feb. 7 .- Details for the sale of the largest fleet of vessels ever sold under the hammer—the thirty former German passenger ships taken over by the government during the war were worked out to-day by the Shipping Board.

On Thursday Chairman Payne will offer to the highest bidder the Leviathan, the George Washington, the Agamemnon, Martha Washington, Mount Vernon and other craft which carried hundreds of thousands of American troops to Europe. President Wilson has assented to the sale, with the provision that they are subject to the call of the War Department in time of national emergency.

Conservatively estimated, the aggregate value of the thirty liners, totaling 365,000 deadweight tons, is placed at between $80,000,000 and $40,000,000 by shipping authorities. Among the bids received recently was one of $28,man Payne has declared it the policy of the board that no one concern will be permitted to acquire the whole fleet. Groups of vessels allocated to passenger services which are being estabby the board will be sold in Service has begun already between New York and South America and lines are planned for New York and European ports, and as the service in which the ships are to be commis-sioned is a condition of their sale, in-terest is being shown as to what com-panies will obtain the more important to concerns now operating Shipping Board tonnage, and it is believed many ships now allocated for future service will change hands as a result. They will change hands as a result. They will be sold without reconditioning from service as transports, part for immediate delivery and part for de-livery when released by the War De-
